

Lilly Bereuter

»The slowest one, who does not lose sight of their goal still moves faster, than the one who wanders aimlessly without a goal.«
(Gotthold Ephraim Lessing)

Expertise

I support organizations and teams in finding the right levers for strategy implementation and in gradually structuring the organization and its culture. For me, organizational transformation means aligning the organization with customer needs while guiding leaders and employees in their development. In doing so, I integrate New Work concepts by coaching leaders and key players in their new roles. Through strengthening individual responsibility, independence and teamwork, the enjoyment and satisfaction of successful action will increase. It is of great importance to me to bring interests together and promote sustainably knowledge transfer.

Project experiences

- Designing and facilitating change and transformation processes.
- Identifying and analyzing improvement potential through the integration of processes, systems, structures, and behavior - deriving and implementing development measures.
- Operationalizing and implementing corporate strategies.
- Providing sparring and coaching for leaders.
- Role and behavior coaching as part of leadership development, specialist, and career coaching.
- Sales coaching, sales systems and sales processes.
- Design, moderation and facilitation of workshops and corporate events.

Educational background and further training

Master's degree in business administration, University of Innsbruck.

Certified Business Consultant, WKO.

Certified MBTI Trainer, A - M - T Management Performance AG.

Systemic Coach based on the Kiel Counseling Model, University of Kiel.

Trainer for Communication and Personal Development, Future Trainer Association.

What moves me ...

Experimenting in the kitchen and discovering new tastes

Classical opera, theater visits and modern art

Swimming, skiing and hiking

Stimulating conversations and learning

Traveling and exploring

Contact

lilly@hikingdays.com | +43 664 100 9239